RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS SUBMITTED:

1. Previously (2019) the county held multiple events but there is only a single 6 hour HHW event planned for 2021 with an expected 350 cars, correct?
RESPONSE: Correct.
2. Up to 150 cars the county would require a minimum of 8 employees working each event, correct?
RESPONSE: Correct.
3. Is there a minimum number of employees that the county would expect to work the 2021 event based on the 350 car expectation?
RESPONSE: We expect a range of 12-16 employees.
4. Are there any volume limits per car?
RESPONSE: No. There is a limit of 20 paint cans
5. Does the vendor need to utilize and maintain the Household Hazardous Waste Portable Storage Unit if the vendor has a local office?
RESPONSE: We will not be using a portable storage on our site. That was old language that we struck out.
6. Can you provide any information regarding the CESQG Participation in past years?
-# of companies participating in each event?
RESPONSE: The City of Schenectady participated in 2019 and the County Facilities Dept. in 2018
-Total volume of waste materials collected?
RESPONSE: 34 gals of paint in 2019 and ~400 gals in 2018
7. Will the CESQG Program be a single event in 2021 or will there be multiple?
RESPONSE: No event is required for 2021
8. Will the county have any Labor requirements for the CESQG event(s)?
RESPONSE: No event is required for 2021
